Right On, Man (Here & Now) 2018 • STEEL • 11 X 8.5 X 5.25 IN

Featuring political comment, internal debate and conflicting references, Cody Hudson (<http://admin.blouinartinfo.com/artists/cody-hudson-1277303>)'s latest works are being showcased in Chicago this winter. The Andrew Rafacz Gallery is hosting the exhibition, titled "I Mean: I Wish I Could Have Time To Groove W/ You But I've Got To Get On W/ My Life". The show, which is made up of paintings, sculptures and installations of various styles, runs until February 24, 2018.

The exhibition displays works with an on going investigation into shape and color in their most elemental ways. The artist has developed a body of paintings, installations, and sculptures over the last few years that transcend their reference points. He has created layered compositions that defy easy identification or interpretation. Most of these works are indebted to portraiture and landscape painting as much as graphic composition, at times outwardly suggesting masks, sunrises, beaches, exotic plants and still lives, while also referencing the artist's own interiority and the current state of the world.

The exhibition is on view through February 24, 2018, at Andrew Rafacz Gallery, 1835 W. Washington Blvd. Chicago IL 60607.
